NOMINATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD – TERMS OF REFERENCE

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 To further formulate and refine the selection criteria and process of directors and senior management officers of Guoquan Food (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”), and to improve the corporate governance structure, the Company has established the Nomination Committee under the Board of Directors (the “Board”) and formulate these working rules in accordance with the provisions of the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as the “Company Law”), the Trial Measures for the Administration of Overseas Securities Offering and Listing by Domestic Enterprises, the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Hong Kong Listing Rules”) and other relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and the Articles of Association of Guoquan Food (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Articles of Association”) and the Rules of Procedures for Meetings of the Board of Guoquan Food (Shanghai) Co., Ltd.

Article 2 The Nomination Committee is a specialized working organization established by the Board in accordance with the Articles of Association. It is mainly responsible for reviewing the selection process, criteria and qualification for appointments of the Company’s directors and senior management officers and making recommendations to the Board. The Nomination Committee is responsible for and reports to the Board of Directors.

Chapter II Composition

Article 3 The Nomination Committee consists of three directors, of which independent non-executive directors constitute a majority.

Article 4 The members of the Nomination Committee shall be nominated by the chairman of the Board, or more than half of the independent non-executive directors, or more than one-third of all directors, and shall be elected by the Board.

Article 5 The Nomination Committee has a committee chairman, who is either the chairman of the Board or a member who is an independent non-executive director, and he is responsible for convening and presiding over the work of the Nomination Committee. The committee chairman shall be elected by members of the Nomination Committee and shall be submitted to the Board for approval.

Article 6 The term of office of the members of the Nomination Committee shall be consistent with the term of office of the directors, upon expiration of the term of a member, such member may be re-elected. During the term of office, if any member no longer serves as a director of the Company or a member who should have the status of an independent non-executive director no longer has the independence stipulated in the Articles of Association, such person will automatically lose his/her membership qualification and the Board will make up for the number of committee members in accordance with Articles 3 to 5 above.

Article 7 The Nomination Committee has set up a working group, which is responsible for, among others, coordination of daily work and organization of meetings. The members of the working group need not be members of the Nomination Committee.

Chapter III Duties and Powers

Article 8 The main duties and powers of the Nomination Committee are:

- (I) Evaluate and review the size and composition of the Board (including skills, knowledge and experience) at least once a year based on the Company's operating activities, asset size and equity structure, and make recommendations to the Board on any proposed changes to the Board in line with the Company's strategies;
- (II) Formulate the Company's corporate governance policies and practices, review their implementation, and make recommendations to the Board;
- (III) Study the selection criteria and procedures for directors, general managers and other senior management officers and make recommendations, inspect and supervise the training and continuing professional development plans for directors and senior management officers;
- (IV) Selection of qualified candidates for directors, general manager and other senior management officers;
- (V) Review and make recommendations on director candidates and candidates for general manager and other senior management officers;
- (VI) Review the independence of independent non-executive directors;
- (VII) Make recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment or re-appointment of directors and succession planning for directors (in particular, the Chairman of the Board), general managers and other senior management officers;
- (VIII) Formulate and maintain a policy on Board diversity, and conduct regular reviews, and disclose such policy or the summary of such policy on Board diversity in the annual report of the Company;
- (IX) When the Board needs to increase the number of directors or fill a vacancy of director, the committee is responsible for identifying persons with suitable qualifications to act as directors and providing advice to the Board on the selection and nomination of such persons as directors. When identifying suitable candidates, the committee should fully consider the complementarity of Board members in respect of knowledge structure and experience, the balance and independence of Board composition. Based on objective conditions and taking into account the benefits of diversity of Board members, as well as the Group's business needs, the committee should select candidates on a broad basis. So as to ensure that the Board members have appropriate talents, experience and diversified viewpoints and perspectives to support the Company in achieving strategic objectives, maintaining competitive advantages and realizing sustainable development;

- (X) The committee shall be responsible for making recommendations to the Board on the re-appointment of non-executive directors (including independent non-executive directors) upon expiration of their term of office, and making recommendations on the election or re-election of directors by shareholders and on the continuous appointment of any director during any period of time. If the Board intends to propose a resolution at the general meeting of shareholders to elect a person for appointment as an independent non-executive director, the committee shall procure that the following must be specified in the circular to shareholders and/or explanatory statement accompanying the notice of the relevant general meeting: (1) the process of identifying the individual, the reasons for selecting such individual for appointment by the Board and the reasons for considering such individual to be an independent party; (2) if the proposed independent non-executive director is going to act as director for the seventh (or above) listed company, the reasons for the Board to believe that such individual is still able to devote sufficient time to perform his/her duties as a director; (3) the viewpoints, perspectives, skills and experience that may be brought by such individual to the Board; and (4) how such individual contributes to the diversity of the Board;
- (XI) Formulate, review and supervise the code of conduct and compliance manual (if any) for employees and directors;
- (XII) Examine the Company's compliance with the Corporate Governance Code in Appendix 14 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the disclosure of information in the Corporate Governance Report;
- (XIII) Matters required by applicable laws and regulations, the Articles of Association, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other matters authorized by the Board of the Company.

Article 9 The Nomination Committee is accountable to the Board. Proposals of the Nomination Committee shall be submitted to the Board for consideration and decision.

The Nomination Committee shall provide all research and discussion, materials and information to the Board in the form of reports, recommendations or conclusions for the Board to study and make decisions.

Chapter IV Decision-making Process
